DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

1. Upon further consideration, an additional species is claimed. Therefore the previous restriction has been withdrawn and a new restriction has been set forth.
2. This application contains claims directed to more than one species of the generic invention. These species are deemed to lack unity of invention because they are not so linked as to form a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1.

The species are as follows:

Species I: Species A1: electrode is a cathode; Specification, p. 4, lines 25-31

Species B1: electrode is an anode; Specification p. 4, lines 33-35

Species II: Species A2: anode is a vacuum chamber wall or shield;

Specification p. 4, lines 33-35, p. 5, lines 1-9

Species B2: anode is a rotatable cylindrical tube; Specification p. 4, lines 33-35, p. 5, lines 1-9

Species C2: anode is a rotatable brush; Specification p. 4, lines 33-35, p. 5, lines 1-9

Species III: Species A3: device is intermittently in relative motion; Specification p. 4, lines 6-9

Species B3: device is continuously in relative motion; Specification p. 4, lines 6-9

Species IV: Species A4: device is intermittently in contact with said electrode;
Specification p. 4, lines 6-9

Species B4: device is continuously in contact with said electrode;
Specification p. 4, lines 6-9

Species V: Species A5: device has a hardness greater than or equal to the hardness of electrode or part thereof in order to remove material from said electrode;
Specification p. 4, lines 6-15

Species B5: device has a hardness smaller than or equal to the hardness of electrode or part thereof in order to apply material from said electrode;
Specification p. 4, lines 6-15

Applicant is required, in reply to this action, to elect a single species (A1 or B1 AND A2 or B2 or C2 AND A3 or B3 AND A4 or B4 AND A5 or B5) to which the claims shall be restricted if no generic claim is finally held to be allowable. The reply must also identify the claims readable on the elected species, including any claims subsequently added. An argument that a claim is allowable or that all claims are generic is considered non-responsive unless accompanied by an election.

Upon the allowance of a generic claim, applicant will be entitled to consideration of claims to additional species which are written in dependent form or otherwise include all the limitations of an allowed generic claim as provided by 37 CFR 1.141. If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which are readable upon the elected species. MPEP § 809.02(a).

3. The claims are deemed to correspond to the species listed above in the following manner:

The following claim(s) are generic: claims 2-4, 6-9, and 14-17.

4. The species listed above do not relate to a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1 because, under PCT Rule 13.2, the species lack the same or corresponding special technical features for the following reasons: The common technical feature unifying Groups I-IV is a sputtering deposition process having a vacuum, an electrode, a substrate, and a device for removing or applying material to said electrode. These features are well known in the art and are disclosed in the prior art documents such as US Patent No. 7,014,741. Hence there are no special technical features and therefore unity is lacking.
